WONDERFUL CAVE IN THE SHATTUCK

Recently Discovered Cavern Resembles Gothic Structure

What is described as one of the world's most remarkable natural caverns was uncovered auddentally by miners in the Shattuck mine at Elebee recently. Other similar saveras have been opened in the Busine district. In one of the older parts of the Copper Queen mitte one of these has become famous focally as the smile torium in which a fraternal organication met in colemn concluse in the earlier days of the camp. All of these honever, are maignificant before the one more recently discovered.

MME. CAILLAUX'S DEFENSE. Will Blame Doctors for Calmette's

Death-No Women at Trial. Paris, July 8.—The trial of Mme. Calliaux for the murder of Gaston almette has been fixed for Monday, uly 20. Fifty witnesses will be called.

The strict rule has been laid down by the Public Prosecutor that no woman shall be allowed to attend the sittings, and the general public will be admitted only to a small amount of the standing room, the rest of the courfroom being taken up by witnesses, experts, members of the bar, and

The Cri de Paris, often well-informed on such matters, states that the line of defense will be that M. Calmette's life could have been saved by a surgical operation performed at once, and that M. Calmette's death ccordingly must be attributed to the mistakes made by doctors who were

The newspaper adds that the public secutor will invite the jury to find Mme. Calliaux guilty, not of murder remeditated or not, but of having inieted wounds which entailed death, Ithough not intended to do so.

AMERICAN NAVY'S NEED.

German Annual Says Chief Difficulty is Lack of Men.

Berlin, July 8.—The most serious lifficulty with which the American savy has to contend is the lack both if officers and men. Other hindrances o its proper development are party politics, lack of a definite mayal program; and the insufficient supply of cruisers.

This is the opinion of Nanticus, ermany's forement annual naval reiew, the sixteenth number of which as just been lessed.

Nauticus, although published by private enterprise, is regarded as a igh authority on marine affairs, an has an almost official standing. The enditions in America particularly unortunate as to younger officers. The sungest ensions now in the service ave no chance to become lieutenants before they are 10, and conditions are ure of Congress to adopt the long-disussed measure to remedy the situa-

The lack of officers is so great that not even the buttleships, to say nothing of auxiliary craisers, could have their full complements in case of war. While the ships mainly have their fulcomplements of men, there is an utter ack of trained reservists to replace he losses that would be caused in the first buttle.

CANAL IS NOW FORTIFIED.

Lieut. Goethals Going to West Point as Instructor. New York, July 8.-Lieut, George

R. Goethals, U. S. A., son of Col. Goetlands, the builder of the Panama Canal, who has been in charge of the building of the fortifications at the Pacific entrance to the canal, has arrived in New York from Washington. Lieut. Goethals has been ordered to West Point to set as instructor there, and while he will not discuss his work on the canal, his leaving at this time, say men familiar with the construction in Panama, indicates that the fortifications have been completed.

The building of the forts guarding the cana! has gone on for years surrounded by the greatest secrecy, and even now little is known about the defenses. At the Pacific end of the canal forts have been built on the islands of Fiamenco, Perico and Naos. in Panama Bay, and on the mainland at Balbout. At the Atlantic end the forts are at Toro Point and Margarita growing worse as a result of the fail- Island, guarding the west and cast sides of the canal, respectively.

ESTABLISHED 1880.

Boston, Mass., July 8 .- Volume of business today was smaller. Weakness in stocks, and especially Mo. Pacific had a bad effect on the market. The copper producers' report chowing an increase of 20,000,000 was about as expected and had no material effect on the coppers as exceptionally heavy sales have been made since report was made July 1st. The refusal of Paul Warburg to accept appointment on federal reserve beard has cast more gloom in financial circles, and the exceptionally good government crop report met with no response in stock market. Little can be expected now until after the rate decision is announced.
